

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- Introduction 7

- Chapter 1. Difference between the political resistance and resistance of the Protestant Church 13

- 1.1 First layer: Church resistance in order to preserve the institutional independence of the Protestant Church 14

- 1.2 Second layer: “Barmen” – defending theology 18
 - 1.2.1 Evaluation of the Barmen Declaration 24

- 1.3 Third layer: Church resistance extending the borders of the church 25

- 1.4 Conclusion 29

- Chapter 2. Dietrich Bonhoeffer’s approach to resistance 33

- 2.1 Distinction from political resistance 34
 - 2.1.1 Immediate reasons for Bonhoeffer’s rejection of the Nazi regime 34
 - 2.1.2 Theological motivation for resistance 37

- 2.2 Distinction from resistance of the Protestant Church 47

- 2.3 Conclusion 50

Chapter 3. Hans-Bernd von Haeften’s approach to resistance	53
3.1 Short biographical notes.....	56
3.2 Distinction from political resistance	58
3.2.1 Development of Haeften’s theological thoughts and his commitment in the Confessing Church.....	58
Early influences.....	58
Vienna.....	61
Bucharest.....	63
3.2.2 Theological motivation for resistance.....	69
3.3 Distinction from resistance of the Protestant Church	80
Conclusion	91

Bibliography