Contents

Foreword 1

1 Overview of Notation Semiotics 3
  1.1 On Notation 3
  1.2 On Musical Notation 7
  1.3 The Existence of the “Notation” Issue in the Twentieth Century 10
  1.4 Music and Notation: Never the Twain Shall Meet 16

2 Linguistic and Non-Linguistic Conceptions of Notation 21
  2.1 Notation and Writing 21
  2.2 Hjelmslev, Prieto: Formalization and Relevance 27
  2.3 Hieroglyphics or Alphabet 29
  2.4 Notation as Operation: Iconicity in Cage 53

3 On the Relationship Between Time and Space 67
  3.1 On the representation of time: linearity and simultaneity 67
  3.2 Time, space and New Music 72
  3.3 Spatiality and combinatoriality in the serial method 87
  3.4 The modelling value of “beginning” and “end” concepts 94
  3.5 Space as a field in notation 105

4 Undercoding and Overcoding 115
  4.1 Notation: from a Rule-Based System to a Text System 115
  4.2 Atonality, dodecaphony and writing 131
  4.3 “New Musical Resources” 145
  4.4 Notational rigour and writing 152