

TABLE OF CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS	7
CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION	9
CHAPTER 2 BEYOND THE NATION-STATE. THE SOCIOLOGY OF PROFESSIONS AND BOURDIEU REVISITED	19
2.1.1 Functionalist approach	22
2.1.2 System approach	24
2.1.3 Monopolist approach.....	27
2.1.4 Moving into a relational sociology of professions.....	31
2.2 Bourdieu's field theory.....	33
2.2.1 Field.....	34
2.2.2 Capital	40
2.2.3 Habitus.....	45
2.3 Revisiting the concepts of profession and field	49
2.3.1 Professions as fields	49
2.3.2 Transnational fields	56
2.3.3 The transnational field of profession	65
CHAPTER 3 KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS ON THE MOVE	71
3.1 Highly skilled migrants	72
3.1.1 The value of skills	73
3.1.2 From expatriates to highly skilled migrants.....	76
3.1.3 Highly skilled migrants with transnational knowledge and skills: the cases of physicians and IT professionals.....	80
3.2 Institutional contexts and rules of professional fields.....	85
3.2.1 Migration laws and regulations in Germany and Chile	88
3.2.2 Forms of institutionalized cultural capital recognition in the medical and IT fields.....	99
3.3 Immigration laws and degree recognition processes as analytical framework to study highly skilled migration	114
CHAPTER 4 METHODS	117
4.1 Mannheim's problem of generations	117
4.2 Documentary method	121
4.2.1 Steps of analysis	124

4.2.2 Multidimensional typologies.....	127
4.3 Data collection methods – Biographical narrative interviews	129
4.4 Fieldwork.....	134
4.5 Two methodological remarks.....	138
4.5.1 The deskilling of highly skilled migrants	138
4.5.2 Transnational research with a country-comparative background.....	141
CHAPTER 5 THE LOGICS OF CULTURAL CAPITAL RECOGNITION	145
5.1 Technical logic of cultural capital recognition	146
5.2 Social logic of cultural capital recognition	149
5.3 Professional logic of cultural capital recognition	152
5.4 State-legal logic of cultural capital recognition.....	155
5.5 Knowledge and the logics of recognition.....	159
CHAPTER 6 HIGHLY SKILLED MIGRANTS’ TRAJECTORIES IN GERMANY AND CHILE.....	163
6.1 Stages of (progressive) access to and settling into the labor market.....	164
6.1.1 Recognition in the private economy	165
6.1.2 Nation-state recognition.....	183
6.2 Matching legal context with labor market logics.....	200
CHAPTER 7 THE INTERPLAY BETWEEN COUNTRY AND FIELD REGULATIONS	205
7.1 The perception of country and field combined	206
7.1.1 Coordination of country and field ensures openness	207
7.1.2 Contradictory relation between country and field	212
7.1.3 Cumulative exclusions between country and field regulations ..	221
7.2 The scope of action in the negotiation of cultural capital.....	230
CHAPTER 8 CONCLUSIONS.....	235
8.1 Institutional contexts and professional fields.....	236
8.2 A multidimensional typology: institutional contexts, professional fields and time	239
8.3 The development of cultural capital negotiation strategies	244
8.4 The research process – an epilogue.....	253
REFERENCES	255

APPENDIX 1 INTERVIEW PARTNERS' SHORT BIOS.....	285
APPENDIX 2 RULES OF TRANSCRIPTION.....	291
APPENDIX 3 ORIGINAL SPANISH QUOTES	293