List of Figures	V
List of Tables	IX
List of Abbreviations	XI
1 Introduction	1
1.1 Motivation	1
1.2 Outline and Contribution	3
2 Planners' Preferences in Crew Scheduling Optimization	9
2.1 Introduction	10
2.2 Literature Review	12
2.2.1 Crew Scheduling	12
2.2.2 Including Preferences in Staff Scheduling	13
2.2.3 Machine Learning and Combinatorial Optimization	15
2.3 Problem Setting	16
2.4 Solution Approach	18
2.5 Prediction Model	22
2.5.1 Model Building	22
2.5.2 Model Quality	26
2.5.3 Model Interpretation	28
2.6 Empirical Study	31
2.6.1 Data Sets	31
2.6.2 Results	34
2.7 Conclusion	40
2.A Model Alternatives	45

3	A Field Experiment on Regional Preferences	47
3.1	Introduction	49
3.2	Literature Review	52
3.2.1	Human Preferences	52
3.2.2	Preference Learning	53
3.2.3	Preferences in Scheduling	53
3.3	Hypothesis Development	55
3.4	Model Description	57
3.4.1	Data Description	58
3.4.2	Model Selection	62
3.4.3	Model Interpretation	65
3.5	Field Study	69
3.5.1	Field Study Design	70
3.5.2	Field Study Description	70
3.5.3	Results	71
3.6	Conclusion	75
4	Division of Labour between Humans and Algorithms	79
4.1	Introduction	80
4.2	Literature Review	81
4.3	Theory Development	83
4.4	Application: Surgery Duration Predictions	87
4.4.1	Data Description	87
4.4.2	Algorithm Description	88
4.4.3	Results	89
4.5	Discussion	91
4.6	Conclusion and Future Research	92
5	The Effort-Value Tradeoff for Integrating Human Judgment	95
5.1	Introduction	96
5.2	Literature Review	99
5.2.1	Integration of Human Judgment in Algorithmic Predictions	99
5.2.2	Surgery Duration Prediction	102

5.3	Methodology	104
5.3.1	Judgment Integration Framework	105
5.3.2	Meta Model for the Value of Human Judgment Integration	106
5.4	Application	108
5.4.1	Data Description	108
5.4.2	Surgery Duration Prediction Models	114
5.4.3	Integration Framework for Human Judgment	115
5.5	Results	116
5.5.1	Results of the Surgery Duration Prediction Models	117
5.5.2	Results of the Meta Model Estimating the Value of Human Judgment	120
5.5.3	Results of the Judgment Integration Framework	122
5.6	Conclusion	127
5.A	Methodology	131
5.B	Results	133
5.C	Feature Importance Plots	135
6	Conclusion	151
6.1	Key Results	151
6.2	Critical Review and Future Research	154
