

Contents

Abbreviations	7
Introduction	9
Chapter 1 Background: Overarching Considerations on Relations between Host States and Foreign Investors	17
1.1 Regulating Foreign Investors: Historical Overview and Current State of Affairs	17
1.1.1 Preliminary Remarks on the Need to Regulate Foreign Investors	17
1.1.2 Historical Evolution of International Investment Law	23
1.2 States' Efforts to Strengthen Their Positions in International Investment Law	36
1.2.1 Exit from the International Investment Law System	37
1.2.2 Modification of International Investment Agreements to Preserve Regulatory Space	44
(i) The right to regulate	47
(ii) Clarifying the standards of treatment	48
(iii) Including exceptions into the treaty text	53
(iv) Final reflections on the states' efforts to strengthen their positions in IIL	54
1.3 Existing Initiatives to Incorporate Direct Obligations of Foreign Investors into IIAs	56
Summary of Chapter 1	68
Chapter 2 Analysis of Investors' Obligations Included in International Investment Agreements	71
2.1 Preliminary Remarks on Concepts and Methodology	71
2.2 Direct Obligations of Foreign Investors	75
2.2.1 Obligation to Comply with Domestic Legislation	76
2.2.2 Obligation Not to Engage in Corrupt Activities	87
2.2.3 Obligation to Provide Certain Information Upon Request	92
2.2.4 Environmental Obligations	96

2.2.5 Obligations in the Sphere of Human Rights	101
2.2.6 Obligations to Establish and Maintain Relations with Local Communities	106
2.2.7 Obligations in the Sphere of Corporate Governance	107
2.2.8 Obligations Relating to Labour and Employment	110
2.2.9 Concluding Reflections on Direct Obligations of Foreign Investors	113
2.3 Indirect Obligations of Foreign Investors	116
2.3.1 Indirect Obligations Relating to the Fight against Corruption	117
2.3.2 Indirect Obligations Relating to Labour and the Environment	122
2.3.3 Concluding Remarks on Indirect Obligations of Foreign Investors	126
2.4 Soft Law Obligations of Foreign Investors Based on the CSR-Related Provisions	127
2.4.1 CSR-Related Provisions in Preambles	130
2.4.2 CSR-Related Provisions as Substantial Clauses	132
(i) CSR-Related Provisions in the Brazilian Investment Agreements	133
(ii) CSR-Related Provisions in Other Investment Agreements	137
2.4.3 Concluding Remarks on Soft Law Obligations: “Hardening” of the CSR-Related Provisions	141
2.5 Implications of Incorporating Investors’ Obligations in International Investment Agreements	145
Summary of Chapter 2	147
Chapter 3 Ways to Enforce Foreign Investors’ Obligations	149
3.1 Investors’ Obligations as Interpreted by International Investment Tribunals	149
3.2 Perspectives of Host States’ Counterclaims against Foreign Investors	160
3.2.1 Establishing the Investor’s Consent to Counterclaims	163
3.2.2 Interpreting the Connectivity Requirement	168
3.2.3 Other Reasons to Dismiss Counterclaims	175
3.2.4 Concluding Remarks on Counterclaims	179

3.3 Strengthening the Role of Domestic Courts of Host and Home States in Enforcing Investors' Obligations	180
Summary of Chapter 3	187
Chapter 4 Interaction between Foreign Investors and Local Stakeholders	189
4.1 Theoretical Framework for Enlarging the Scope of Actors Involved into IIL	189
4.2 Increasing the Number of Remedies Available to Local Stakeholders	194
4.3 Involvement of Local Stakeholders in International Investment Law	206
4.4 Direct Obligations of Foreign Investors towards Local Communities	213
4.5 Final Remarks on Enlarging the Scope of Actors Participating in International Investment Law	220
Summary of Chapter 4	223
Summary of the Thesis and Conclusion	225
Bibliography	233
Documents of International Organisations	260
International Legal Instruments	266
Table of cases	268