

Table of Contents

1	Introduction and Earlier Research	1
2	Memory, Identity and Nature	11
2.1	Culture, Memory, and Cultural Memory	14
2.2	Literature as the Grey Zone Between Memory and History	26
2.3	Constructing Identities through Literature	42
2.4	Conceptualising Nations, States, and National Identities.....	48
2.5	Writing Place and Nature	58
2.6	Resonance Theory.....	75
3	Resonating Scotland.....	91
3.1	Shepherd the Renaissance Writer.....	92
3.2	Female Perspectives	153
3.3	Living Memories and Identities	217
3.3.1	Scottish Identities	222
3.3.2	Shepherd and Commemoration	279
3.4	Natural Resonance	289
3.4.1	Writing Nature.....	292
3.4.2	Nature and the Self in The Living Mountain	330
3.5	Resonating Language(s)	361
3.6	Shepherd in the 21 st Century.....	404
4	Conclusion — Nan Shepherd’s Living Memory	415
5	Works Cited	425